Countdown to polling day

THE starting gun was fired in the election campaign last week, as dozens of prospective councillors stepped forward to challenge for seats in Bridport.

While the general election battle buses gather pace ahead of polling day, local candidates are also preparing for a fight to represent Bridport at the local level.

With 31 candidates scrapping for the town council's 18 available seats, and a further 21 bidding for the six district vacancies, Bridport is likely to see some of Dorset's most keenly-contested elections.

And the names of all those in the race were finally unveiled last Thursday, following months of speculation.

The campaign is now set to take off as the countdown to polling day commences.

Representatives from all the main political parties will seek to win the town's support over the next three weeks, with a handful of independent candidates also standing.

And with uncontested elections dampening the campaign in Lyme Regis and Beaminster, Bridport will be flying the flag for democracy in West Dorset on May 7th.

by Jack Dixon

jack@pemedi.co.uk

More than 30 names have been put forward to stand for the town council, and Bridport's serving district councillors will also have a fight on their hands to retain their seats, with 21 candidates vying for the six vacant positions.

The Liberal Democrats are the best represented of the main political parties, having put forward six candidates, including current councillor Ros Kayes, for the district vote.

Serving representatives for the Conservative Party, Keith Day, Sandra Brown and Frances McKenzie, are among the five Tories standing, while independent David Tett has thrown his hat into the ring once again.

In the town council elections, the Bridport North ward will see 15 candidates, including six current councillors, fighting it out for nine seats, with 16 standing in the Bridport South ward.

Two thirds of the current council will seek re-election, while six serving members – Philip Lathey, Julian May, Charles Michell, Gillian Summers, Anne-Marie Vincent and Karl Wallace – are all standing down.

Election fever is now gripping Bridport, with just over three weeks to go until the town goes to the polls.

And with a flood of local representatives having joined the race, every vote could prove to be crucial.

Faye Neal is a professional photographer living Bridport. She has just started out and developed her own business, Faye Neal Photography.

Faye has lived in the area since she was two-years-old when her parents moved down from Crawley, West Sussex.

She is currently busy developing her portfolio and looking after her daughter, three-year-old Lacey Rae.

For more information on Faye's photography and to see some of her work visit www.fayenealphotography.co.uk

● WHEN did you first embark on photography?
I went to Colfox School, and went straight into work at River Cottage HQ. Unfortunately while I was in this job I got unwell and had to give up work and didn't work for a few years. During this time I decide to take my passion for photography further and put myself through a photography course. A year later I got my photography diploma.

● WHERE did your passion for photography come from?
My passion for photography has always been with me from a young age, I remember my granddad being very good at it; he wasn't a photographer but was handy with a camera. I have always wanted to do it as a profession and a lot of what drives me is my daughter Lacey, I want to be a good role model for her.

● WHAT events have you already done?
The past year I have been working hard to gain as much experience as I can. I've done a number of private photo sessions for people, a wedding, Buckham Fair and a lot of equestrian-related stuff. I feel I am now at a point where I feel I can go off and start my own business and offer my services to the public, I am doing Buckham Fair again this year, which is really exciting as it grows every year and feel I can grow with it and capture the atmosphere it brings. Other than events and equestrian, I will be offering photo sessions that include newborn and family, couple and engagement, weddings, dogs and other pets.

● IS THERE a particular place, person or animal you like to photograph?
Yes I specialise in equestrian photography. Horses are amazing animals and give off such a calming vibe, it is by far where I feel most at home with my photography. I do love street photography and people too, I have a couple person projects that I am about to start working on in this area and I am looking forward to it greatly.

● WHAT can you offer customers?
I offer a friendly relaxed service that is affordable for everyone, I work on location or at your home, my photography is very natural. I will be working on my own and hopefully as my business grows I will be able to take on young photographers to work along side me at events and weddings etc. Other than photo sessions I will be working on some personal projects to keep my portfolio up to date and fresh, I hope to do some travel photography in the near future and hope to get involved with more local events in Dorset.

Police seek hair product thief

DO YOU know this man?

POLICE officers in Bridport are appealing for help in identifying a suspect after a high value theft at the Holland & Barrett shop in the town.

The incident happened between 12noon and 1pm on Saturday, April 4th at the health food shop on East Street.

The offender entered the store and took a large amount of hair growth products from the shelf and made no attempt to pay for them before leaving.

Police Constable Brian Puttock, of Bridport police, said: "I am releasing a CCTV image of the suspect in hope that someone will recognise him."

"Anyone who may be able to identify the individual or has more information about the theft should contact me on 101."

Anyone with information should call Dorset police on 101 quoting crime number 015087.

Alternatively, call the free and anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 111 (mobile phone tariffs may apply).

Anger over NHS 'sham' meetings

By Jack Dixon
jack@pemedial.co.uk

MEMBERS of a local health pressure group have dismissed NHS chiefs' efforts to engage with the public as "a sham", as concern grows for the future of health services in Bridport.

The Dorset Health Campaign has described the Dorset Clinical Commissioning Group's consultation meetings as "pure flim-flam", following a public meeting held at Bridport Town Hall recently.

Campaign spokesman Chris East criticised the CCG for making key decisions about changes to health services "from the outset", suggesting that attempts to engage with the public were false.

The CCG, a body of GPs and health professionals tasked with planning health services across the county, has repeatedly insisted that no final decisions have been made about its ongoing clinical services review, and that members of the public can help them reach decisions by providing effective feedback.

But in the latest war of words, Mr East warned that hospital closures and the downgrading of services were likely, leading to longer journeys for patients.

The town hall meeting followed a public screening of the documentary film detailing doctors' personal concerns about the future of the health service.

The meeting, organised by Autonomy Films and the UNITE community group, with the participation of members of the 38 Degrees west Dorset network, also heard contributions from concerned residents.

"The review team plan has been to come up with their solution for cost-saving changes by the end of March, but they will then not reveal their plans to the Dorset public until well after the general election", said Mr East.

"Almost without the public noticing, the health service as we know it is being replaced by a system modelled on the US, in which care is delivered by profit-maximising companies."

The CCG is currently reviewing a wide range of services and is expected to reveal firm proposals in the summer, having set out its 'case for change' last year.

The latest accusations follow similar concerns raised by Bridport town councillors last month.

Tim Goodson, the CCG's chief officer, told members at a recent meeting that the review was not part of a "privatisation agenda" and that there was "not a pre-conceived idea from the outset that this is privatisation by the back door in any way."

Further information about the CCG's review is available on their website at www.dorsetvision.nhs.uk.

Make the most of Residents' Week

SOME of the top visitor attractions across Bridport and Beaminster will be offering discount deals and special offers to local people for Dorset Residents' Week.

These discounts are available between Monday April 20th and Sunday April 26th using special offer vouchers featured in the spring edition of Dorset County Council's 'Your Dorset' publication.

Attractions offering special offers in Bridport include Bridport Leisure Centre, Palmers Brewery, Mangerton Mill, the Jurassic Fun Centre at Freshwater Holiday Park and Furleigh Estate at Salway Ash, who are all offering '2 for 1' deals.

Similar offers are also in store in Beaminster with Mapperton Gardens, UK Llamas in Mosterton and Beaminster Museum taking part.

Nick Thornley, on behalf of the Visit Dorset Tourism partnership, said: "We are very lucky to live in such a wonderful area and I fully encourage residents to come out and enjoy the best of what Dorset has to offer."

"There will be plenty of opportunity to visit a favourite attraction of yours or explore somewhere new."

"I would like to thank all the attractions that are involved with Dorset Residents' Week for making it such a successful event."

For more information, copies of vouchers and a full list of attractions taking part visit www.visit-dorset.com.

Vouchers to help SMEs link to faster broadband

SMALL and medium-sized businesses (SMEs) can get connected to faster broadband at a reduced cost, thanks to a new voucher scheme starting this week.

Local businesses can now apply for up to £3,000 towards getting connected to an improved broadband service.

Superfast Dorset, the council partnership behind a major rollout of high-speed internet across the county, is launching the scheme.

It wants to encourage businesses to improve their connections and become more competitive on a global scale.

Matthew Piles, Head of Economy at Dorset County Council, said: "We want at least 500 Dorset businesses to benefit from this really exciting opportunity."

More details about the scheme and information on how to apply is available at www.dorset-foryou.com/connection-vouchers.

Bursary for local food and drink producers

Members of the Bridport Local Food Group, the organisers behind Bridport Food Festival, have launched an Exhibitor Bursary Award to support new local food and drink businesses.

This award will give infant businesses an opportunity to show their products at the annual food festival at Asker's Meadow, on Saturday June 13th, free of charge.

For an application form email operations@bridportfoodfestival.co.uk or download one from the website www.bridportfoodfestival.co.uk.

Local group fundraise for Parkinson's

MEMBERS of the Parkinson's UK Bridport and District Support Group were eagerly raising funds for the charity on Saturday (April 11th) ahead of Parkinson's Awareness Week, writes LOTTIE WELCH.
 The group sold homemade cakes and preserves and plants in Bucky Doo before the charity holds its national campaign from April 20th to April 26th.

Linda Gould, link coordinator at the Bridport support group, said:

"Parkinson's UK are leaders in research and embraces its branches by offering support.

"It informs the public that if they take a step closer to being helpful to everybody, it would rub off on everyone. The more helpful people are the more relaxed people with Parkinson's will be."

The group offer support to people living with Parkinson's and their carers through monthly meetings, activities and a tea and cake social.

Linda Gould is also looking for someone to work with her at the support group with the view of them taking it over in a year's time.

She added: "I have been doing it for nine years and they don't need to know all about Parkinson's as they learn on the job.

For more information contact Linda Gould on 01308 489202 or email lindagould50@gmail.com

Bridport crime update

BRIDPORT police officers are appealing to witnesses or anyone with information of the following crimes to call Dorset police on 101 quoting the relevant crime number:

Between 1.45pm and 1.55pm on Tuesday April 7th, a VT700 Shadow American Classic motorcycle parked in East Street had a bronze coloured left hand side panel stolen. Crime number 014680

A grey Honda parked in Orchard Avenue between Sunday April 5th and Monday April 6th sustained criminal damage to its roof whereby three separate areas of the roof have been damaged by an abrasive material such as sandpaper. Crime number 014601

A silver Mercedes E320 parked within a secure compound at Verse Farm has been entered by thieves who cut a hole through security fencing.

They stole tools from within the vehicle's boot and fuel was also stolen from a tank within the compound.

This is likely to have occurred between Monday March 23rd and Friday March 27th. Crime number 014638.

Late on Saturday April 4th, a Volkswagen Polo left insecure in the gravel car park next to Bridport Football Club's grounds was entered via the passenger door and the stereo and cash was stolen. Crime number 014342

On the afternoon of Tuesday, April 7th, a burglary occurred at a property in Symondsburry after entry was gained by forcing a kitchen window while the home owner was out.

Cash and a number of watches were taken from the property.

If you have been offered any watches for sale or saw anything suspicious in the area, call Dorset police on 101 quoting crime number 14666.

A security light was ripped from the wall of a property in New Zealand Farm Close at 4.40am on Saturday April 11th.

A 17-year-old male is assisting police with their enquiries in relation to this damage. Crime number 15257

A blue Audi, which was parked at Gordon Terrace, had two tyres punctured overnight on Saturday April 11th.

Prominent botanist releases book on Amazon expeditions

AFTER nearly 50 years since his first journey to the tropics exploring for plants, and 39 expeditions to the Amazon, prominent botanist, Professor Sir Ghilleen Prance, from Lyme Regis, has gathered his experiences in new book 'That Glorious Forest'.

The book includes a fascinating and diverse collection of accounts from his trips, along with thoughts on a lifetime of work surveying the Amazon flora.

Sir Ghilleen (pictured) has written this book as a tribute to all those who have helped him survey the Amazon region over the last five decades. Its main focus is on the process and running of expeditions, as well as collecting specimens.

Included at the end of each chapter are plant collection numbers made on the expeditions described, as well as a list of new species discovered.

Sir Ghilleen is a specialist in a number of plant families, all of which consist of trees and vines widely distributed in the Amazon region and elsewhere.

As a former senior vice-president of the New York Botanical Garden he was presented in 2008 with a gold medal by the attraction, its highest honour, in recognition of his service and ongoing dedication to the mission of the garden, and to botany and horticulture internationally. He was also previously director of the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew.

Sir Ghilleen will launch 'That Glorious Forest' at Serendip bookshop in Broad Street, Lyme Regis on Friday (April 17th) from 6pm.

Race for Westminster gathers pace

WEST DORSET residents will go to the polls to choose their next MP on May 7th, with three weeks of fierce campaigning to come before election day.

Polling stations across the constituency will open at 7am, and thousands are expected to turn out and cast their votes in what is being described as the tightest general election in recent memory.

Incumbent Conservative MP Oliver Letwin will be seeking a fifth successive election victory to win the seat he has held since 1997.

Mr Letwin, who commands a majority of just under 4,000, is set for a tough battle against four rival candidates, all seeking to snatch the West Dorset seat.

The Liberal Democrats have backed Bridport councillor Ros Kayes to topple the Tories this time around, after Sue Farrant ran Mr Letwin close at the last election in 2010.

The seat is also being contested by Rachel Rogers, who will represent Labour. And a further challenge will come from Green Party candidate Peter Barton and UKIP's David Glossop, both standing for the first time.

The parliamentary candidates formally announced their bids for Westminster last week, after they had participated in a lively hustings event at Bridport's Electric Palace.

Help bring change to local politics

■ A NUMBER of Public First stalwarts have been striving to obtain five per cent of West Dorset's residents' signatures on a petition to trigger a referendum on the West Dorset District Council's 'cabinet' system, which currently allows the party with roughly 42 per cent of the votes to hold 100 per cent of the decision making.

A committee system, with representation of all parties, would surely make the process more accountable.

In our recent foray into Sherborne, only six of 153 people surveyed wanted to retain the current system.

Many spoke passionately about 'breathing democracy' into local government, and getting rid of the secrecy that currently rules the local roost.

Opinions in the town reflected our experience in Dorchester, Bridport, Lyme Regis and surrounds.

Our goal at Public First is to inject a little Athenian democracy into the moribund local system – to inform the people of Dorset about the machinations of local politics, and open it up to reflect true public opinion. Won't you help?

Print off a petition form from www.publicfirstgroup.co.uk, ask your friends to sign it, and send it to us.

Let's make all this talk about political change really mean something.

CLIVE STAFFORD SMITH,
Chairman, Public First Group

■ ONE can only admire the wonderful job the gentleman who has been tidying the grass verges all the way along Sea Road North.

I for one would like to say a big 'thank you' to him for making my town that much smarter, especially along that particular stretch of highway.

It would be nice if the town council could perhaps say a thank you also.

JOHN MOREY,
Bradpole

St Mary's director of music retires

THE director of music at St Mary's Church has retired after 14 years of service.

Peter Jezard has served as an organist and director of music in 10 churches from Kent to Cornwall over the last 60 years, with Bridport being his last.

His retirement was marked in a service at St Mary's Church, South Street, where he was presented with the Royal School of Church Music's (RSCM) medal for loyal service.

Peter Jezard spent 14 years at the Bridport church, playing the organ, directing and training the choir and composing many hymns and other music for St Mary's and for Bridport civic observances.

His wife Shirley has also been a choir member and soloist, lay pastoral assistant and the treasurer of Churches Together in Bridport.

David Duvall, chairman of the Wessex Area of the RSCM, read a farewell message from the Archdeacon of Sherborne The Venerable Paul Taylor.

St Mary's Deputy Churchwarden Ivor Parker and Canon Andrew Evans made presentations on behalf of the church and congregation.

Peter Jezard said: "Being presented with a medal by the Royal School of Church Music for something that one would have done regardless of any kind of reward, came as rather a shock, although a great honour indeed from a Royal institution given to the promotion of high standards in church music. The medal presented to me has really been earned by all the singers and members of the orchestras who have worked with me over the past 60 years.

"My wife and I have enjoyed working with you over the past 14 years' this town and its town folk, without doubt, has been our favourite. We will never forget the joy you have given us during our final appointment of director of music at St Mary's Church, Bridport."

Opticians recognised for staff management

A BRIDPORT opticians has been recognised once again for its excellent staff management.

The Bridport branch of Specsavers has been awarded the prestigious Investors in People (IIP) accreditation for the third consecutive time.

The store first achieved the award in 2006 after demonstrating a high standard of practice in staff management.

Store director Susanna Newall said: "We are delighted to have achieved the IIP status for the third time running.

"Our staff are the most important aspect of our business and we put a lot of time and effort into managing them and making sure they are performing to the best of their ability.

"This is a fantastic achievement and a fitting tribute to the hard work of our employees."

Investors in People is the UK's leading accreditation for business improvement through people management.

They provide a wealth of resources for businesses to innovate, improve and grow, with a focus on good people making great business.

Paul Devoy, head of Investors of People, said: "Achieving the Investors in People standard is something that any organisation should be truly proud of.

"Working with Investors in People inspires and enables leaders, managers and employees at all levels to build their skills, improve their performance and achieve their potential. "We would like to congratulate Specsavers Bridport on its achievement."

'We will be back'

LANDLORD VOWS TO RESTORE FIRE-DAMAGED PUB

THE owner of the Chideock pub that burned down in last week's devastating fire has pledged to begin the rebuilding process straight away.

Mike Long and his family lost almost all of their material possessions in the blaze on Bank Holiday Monday, but an incredible show of support from the community has seen £1,000 raised for them already.

In an effort to repay their acts of kindness, Mr Long has vowed to restore the much-loved Clockhouse Inn and give the village back its pub.

"We will be back, that's for sure," he said last week, as builders began to dismantle the remains of the pub.

"After what people have done for us, I have to give them back what they had – as a thank you for everything the community has done for my family."

Owners for the last 13 years, Mike and Helen Long, and their two daughters, Jessica, 11, and Charlotte, nine, could only watch as their home burned to the ground last week.

Fourteen fire engines battled the blaze during the course of the afternoon, but the 16th-century building was completely destroyed.

Thankfully the whole family was out of the house on an Easter egg hunt when the chimney caught fire.

by Jack Dixon

jack@pemedi.co.uk

Returning to their home after seeing plumes of smoke rising from the chimney, Mr Long raced inside to rescue his daughters' pet rabbits and goldfish, before fire-fighters took control of the situation.

The family stayed in the next door tea rooms for the first two nights and have since arranged for accommodation, but all their clothes, toys and other possessions were destroyed.

An astonishing reaction from the village community has seen dozens of items donated, while £1,000 has been donated to the disaster appeal set up the day after the fire.

A statement on the appeal's website read: "This fund will hopefully go a little way to helping them get back on their feet while the long-term plans to rebuild the Clock are put in place."

"Donations have come from far and wide, and along with all the local help, [the family] has been overwhelmed by the support they have received."

Mr Long added: "If I said I was offered 70 beds on that first night, it would be an understatement."

"We have had donations from people we have never even met before. Drivers have even been stopping on the road to hand us cards. It's ridiculous."

Mr Long said anything salvageable from the building would be used to restore the "bigger and better" Clockhouse Inn, which he hopes to reopen as soon as possible.

Any oak beams, brickwork or other parts of the structure that are still intact could be used to make a memorial to the former pub, he said.

He said: "We have still got the four walls and that is keeping us going at the moment."

"There are no words to describe what it has been like. All I can say is that I will give the village back its pub and we will have one hell of a party."

Film festival is another glittering success

FILM fans in Bridport turned out for the town's From Page to Screen Festival, which featured a host of guest appearances and movie screenings.

The festival – which took place from Wednesday, April 8th to Sunday 12th – kick started with a screening of Bicycle Thieves, which was followed by Pride and Prejudice, The Princess Bride, Jules et Jim and The French Lieutenant's Woman, to name but a few.

by Lottie Welch
lottie@pemedi.co.uk

From Page to Screen is the UK's only film festival dedicated to the adaptation of books into films and the gala opening event took place last Wednesday (April 8th) for organisers and supporters, followed by a screening of The Imitation Game.

Guests enjoyed a spread of canapés supplied by Soulshine Café, wine and drink provided of Wessex Wines and even had the chance to see a real Enigma machine, courtesy of Bletchley Park.

The five-day festival boasted a star studded line up with The Theory of Everything actress, Emily Watson, Dame Harriet Walter – the award-winning actress known for her work in theatre – and Deborah Moggach, the best-selling author of 'These Foolish Things', which was made into the successful film The Best Marigold Hotel.

This year the festival had a selection of curators that included Deborah Moggach and members of the Bridport Film

Society and 19 films were screened to the public in both Bridport Arts Centre and the Electric Palace.

Local churches awarded a share of £100,000

LOCAL churches have been awarded a share of £100,000 for vital repairs, maintenance and restoration work.

Powerstock, Charmouth and Wootton Fitzpaine parish churches are amongst those in Dorset to have already been allocated £36,000 worth of grants from the Dorset Historic Churches Trust (DHCT).

The funding will go towards fixing roofs and gutters, repairing leaded windows and renewing electrical wiring and worn-out stonework.

The DHCT's annual Ride+Stride event helps to raise money for churches in Dorset and last year raised £80,000 for the Trust.

Simon Pomeroy, chairman of the DHCT, said: "The Dorset Historic Churches Trust is looking forward to an exciting year ahead and we are thrilled to be able to help preserve beautiful churches across Dorset."

"The repair works we help fund are often desperately needed and we rely on fundraising activity and donations by our many supporters and especially the Friends of the Dorset Historic Churches Trust to make our work possible.

"We would like to say a huge thank you to everyone who took part in our Ride+Stride event and hope as many – if not more – people will join in the fun this year."

Further grants will be awarded to churches in Dorset during the year to help conserve the county's historic churches for generations to come.

This year's Ride+Stride event will take place on Saturday September 12th and is DHCT's main source of fundraising.

The event involves some 200 parish and church communities across the county cycling or walking to as many different churches as they can in a day.

Details of how to take part will be found in churches from July along with contact details for parish organisers.

The DHCT has also recently launched a range of note cards, which feature stained glass windows, and all proceeds will go towards the work of the Trust.

These can be ordered from barrydemorgan@gmail.com

Hundreds flock to Burton Bradstock

■ VISITORS lined the riverbank to cheer on the 600 plus ducks in the race

HUNDREDS of residents, holidaymakers and families turned out to the annual Friends of Burton Bradstock Primary School Duck Race on Easter Monday (April 6th) which organisers are calling one of the most successful yet, writes LOTTIE WELCH.

Over 600 ducks were launched into the race, cheered on by people lining the riverbank, with the three fastest ducks and the losing duck receiving prizes, including one donated by the Chocolatier Café on East Street.

And visitors also had the opportunity to join in with egg and biscuit decorating, pig racing, an obstacle course – with an egg and spoon race – guess the number of eggs in the jar and guess the name of the Easter bunny.

Sue Dampney, a member of the Friends of Burton Bradstock Primary School who organised the event, said: "We had such a good day – the sun shone and hundreds of people came along.

"It was lovely to see so many people turn up to support us and have some fun – families from school, locals from the village and lots of holiday makers too.

"Thanks to all our supporters, we raised over £750 from the duck race this year; I think the most we have ever raised.

"This will be used to pay for transport for day trips for the children so they can learn more about their local area first hand.

"The next trip planned is to Charmouth Heritage Centre, which will kick start their Jurassic Coast learning this term."

SUPPORT FOR SYMONDSBURY | The annual Friends of Symondsburry Primary School Easter egg hunt received more support than ever as hundreds turned out on Easter Sunday to take part. Families and visitors enjoyed a trail up Colmers Hill before coming back to the school for refreshments. Chairman of the Friends Karen Meek said: "I would like to say a huge thank you to everyone that supported us, from cake bakers to helpers on the day. Also a special mention to local businesses that donated raffle prizes such as Groves Nurseries, Palmers Brewery, Bridport Leisure Centre and Moores biscuits."

Bridport business expands in mission to lead the industry

A BRIDPORT business has broadened its horizons and services to fulfil an ambition of being the UK's leading manufacturer in rope and net.

■ Huck Nets' play equipment is installed in many All Play-designed playgrounds in Ireland including Marine Gardens in Carrickfergus

Huck Nets (UK) has acquired All Play Limited, which is based in Northern Ireland and run by managing director Brian McKee and his family.

The supplier of rope and net solutions has had a long standing relationship with the providers of play equipment as their play division has been supplying All Play with their rope and net apparatus for some 10 years.

Huck's play equipment has also been installed in many of the playgrounds that All Play has designed including Loughall Country Park and Marine Gardens in Carrickfergus.

Jon Legg-Bagg, Huck Net's managing director, said: "All Play is a thriving firm that will help to augment our service offering."

"Acquiring All Play not only demonstrates our commitment to the Irish market but also our desire to be the leading manufacturer and supplier of rope and net play equipment in the UK."

"We have tremendous respect for Brian and his team, and having them as part of our business strengthens our expertise and position in the play industry."

"We look forward to working with them all."

All Play, established in 1998, is a family run business and is one of Ireland's leading providers of play equipment and related services.

The firm, under the leadership of managing director Brian McKee and his wife Jill and daughter Hollie, are well known in the industry for their expertise in the design and installation of playgrounds.

Brian McKee, All Play managing director, said: "I am excited to be joining forces with Huck Nets (UK)."

"Our philosophy at All Play has always been to create the best possible play experience for those who use our playgrounds by producing schemes that are innovative, educational, challenging, stimulating, age appropriate and above all, fun."

"We have been incorporating Huck's rope and play equipment into our designs for some years as it fits our ambitions well, as a result I am very aware of the quality of their products and the people they employ."

"I believe our specific assets will help Huck increase market share in Ireland and our joint expertise will enable Huck to achieve their ambition of being the market leader for rope play equipment in the UK and Ireland."

All Play will continue to operate under the same name and management but is now a wholly owned subsidiary of Huck Nets (UK) Limited.

The acquisition will also give a base in Ireland at Ballynahinch, County Down, for the Huck's installation team, Huck Tek.

Mayors' motorbike meeting

■ BRIDPORT Mayor Councillor Maggie Ray, pictured right, had a special visit and welcomed fundraising riders and the Mayor of Yeovil to the town.

The riders were raising funds for the Yeovil Special Care baby Unit and the motorcycles caused great interest, especially among the young people, who were able to sit on some of the bikes.

Cllr Maggie Ray said: "It was a great honour to welcome the Mayor of Yeovil and his riders to West Bay. Congratulations to Mike and his Mayoress Pauline for all their fundraising efforts on behalf of such a worthy cause."

Fire station's fond farewell

FINAL FAREWELL: The team at Bridport Fire Station have said a sad farewell to one of their longest serving members. Watch manager Toman Lau, pictured third right, has left the station after joining the Dorset Fire and Rescue service in October 1987 and attended his last drill night on Monday March 30th. A spokesperson from Bridport Fire Station said: "All of us at Bridport Fire Station would like to wish Toman the very best of luck for the future and enjoy a long and happy retirement – we are all going to miss you."

Premiere screening of Far from the Madding Crowd comes to Bridport

by Lottie Welch
lottie@pemedi.co.uk

THE streets of Bridport will be studded with stars as a special Dorset premiere of Far From the Madding Crowd comes to the town.

The Electric Palace will be hosting the event and showing a gala screening of the adaptation of the Thomas Hardy novel on Friday April 17th – two weeks before it is released in cinemas.

Many Dorset locations were used in filming during summer 2013, including Mapperton House near Beaminster, Dorchester and Sherborne with many locals taking the roles of extras.

The premiere will be attended by the filmmakers but the full guest list is yet to be confirmed.

Susan Warren, manager at the Electric Palace, said: "We are thrilled to have been chosen for the gala showing of Far From the Madding Crowd."

"It is absolutely right that the Dorset premiere is being held in Bridport as we are at the heart of where the film was set and so many local people were involved in making it.

"Thomas Hardy died two years after the Electric Palace opened, so there is a kind of synchronicity at work here.

"It is a great venue, full of charm and character, and we have just invested in the latest cinema projection equipment so the timing could not be better.

"My team at the Electric Palace has been working with the people at Fox Studios to make this premiere happen here in Bridport and, like the rest of the area, we are really looking forward to seeing the film."

Far From the Madding Crowd, a collaboration between British production company, DNA films, studio Fox Searchlight and the BBC, directed by Thomas Vinterberg, tells the story of independent, beautiful and headstrong Bathsheba Everdene, played by Carey Mulligan.

She attracts three very different suitors; Gabriel Oak, a sheep farmer played by Matthias Schoenaerts, Frank Troy, a handsome Sergeant played by Tom Sturridge and a mature bachelor played by Michael Sheen.

For more information about the film visit the Far From the Madding Crowd Facebook page.

Bridport Music prepares for vinyl crowds

BRIDPORT Music is getting ready for one of the biggest and busiest days of the year as hundreds of music fans are expected to descend on the shop.

This Saturday, Bridport Music, is opening for Record Store Day, an international campaign that celebrates independent music shops and new releases of vinyl's and CD's.

Limited edition and exclusive records will be up for grabs at Bridport Music in South Street from 8am.

Local musicians will preform in the shop throughout the day, including Mutter Slatter, Fenne Lily and Son of Richard, with Mitch Norman playing the last set and cutting the Record Store Day cake.

Steph Garner, co-owner of Bridport Music, said: "It is only for independent music shops and is all about new vinyl releases and selling them on the day but we don't really know which vinyl's we will get until a few days before.

"Last year we had people queuing outside from 4am and we were really busy - it was one of the best days we have had.

"James Baker, a local DJ, will be making us a cake for the day and after the initial rush has died down a bit we will start the live music."

A list of the releases available on the day has been published on the shop's Facebook page, but may change and be updated.

Bridport Music will be open from 8am to 5pm on Saturday April 18th and for more information about Record Store Day visit www.recordstoreday.co.uk

Beaminster mourns 'Pager', community and sporting stalwart

Obituary by Stuart Broom

A MAN who never forgot the kindness the people of Beaminster showed when his family was evacuated from the East End of London during the Second World War has died after years of service to the community, particularly the local cricket and football clubs.

Brian Page died on April 3rd aged 71 after a short illness.

When his family arrived in the early years of the conflict, they had very little money and few belongings. But this didn't stop the local people of Beaminster taking them into their hearts, and after the war they stayed and made it their home.

Brian, or Pager as he was affectionately known, who was born in the town in 1943, never forgot their kindness and spent his life putting something back into the community.

It was during his time at Beaminster Boys School, that Brian found his mentor Len Marsh, a school-teacher, who taught him about community service.

He told me in an interview several years ago that it was his encouragement and support that showed him how he could help put something back into the community whilst still enjoying himself, something he has tried to follow through his life.

He started playing football for Beaminster Reserves at the age of 14, and played his first game of cricket for Beaminster 2nd XI around the same time.

On leaving school at fifteen he joined Spiller's as an apprentice joiner and cabinetmaker.

When the football club folded in 1958, Brian along with two friends Bruce

Taylor and Terry Collin decided to reform the club guided by stalwarts such as Brian Newberry, and they rejoined the Perry Street League in the season 1961-62.

However, Brian shunned the limelight, preferring instead to help behind the scenes marking pitches and doing all the unsung jobs so important in any successful organisation.

Brian played for Beaminster for 24 years until his retirement in 1982. Never cautioned, his highlight was scoring the only goal in the Edwards Charity Cup Final against Lyme Regis in the mid 70's.

Football however wasn't Brian's only interest, he played cricket for the town for over twenty years, skippering the 2nd XI for a number of seasons. A spinner, he broke through to the 1st XI in the early 70's.

Once again Brian took a back seat, working tirelessly on the committee without recognition, just how he liked it. He prepared the wicket for over 20 years to such a standard that the Recreation Ground played hosts to many Dorset U-15 matches.

He then spent 10 years as an umpire travelling around Dorset. He currently holds the post of secretary to both the football and cricket club.

His community work also includes the Arts Society in the 70's where as a committee member he helped bring luminaries such as Cyril Fletcher to the town. He was stage manager for the Drama Club in the 80's and was a member of the Dorset FA for 10 years representing them at Perry Street League Management meetings.

In recent years he was a member of the Beaminster Museum, working tirelessly for them.

Beaminster Cricket Club released the following statement which shows the high regard they held him in:

"It was with great sadness that BCC learnt of the death of its erstwhile secretary, player and groundsman, Brian Page (Pager) who passed away on April 3rd at the age of 71.

To a very large degree Pager was 'Mr Beaminster Cricket'. He served the club for around 50 years and was the ultimate clubman; loyal, hardworking and a man of principle.

His principles led him into a number of stand-offs

■ BEAMINSTER'S Brian Page, who died April 3rd

and disagreements with county cricketing authorities, particularly when he considered that they were not giving volunteers, who run the clubs in Dorset cricket, enough consideration and respect. Despite this, or perhaps because of it, he was hugely respected and well known throughout the county. When visiting other grounds on summer Saturdays the Beaminster players and officials would often be asked how Pager was these days.

He could always be depended upon to fill a breach in a crisis and his intentions were always positive. Hence he filled the role of being in charge of Saturday cricket teas, an onerous task when done week after week and year after year. He never received the help he considered due for such work, and this perceived lack of support would bring forth the occasional mild complaint, a very rare thing to hear from Pager.

Pager was a kind, loyal, modest and quietly spoken man with a dry sense of humour. Jokes were slipped into conversations and not always noticed immediately, so understated as they were; but none the less funnier for that.

Pager will be missed not only by the cricket club, but also by the football club and Beaminster museum, two other organisations to benefit from his knowledge, hard work and wisdom. He was a mine of information on the sports men and women who have represented Beaminster over the last half century.

Pager did however have one cross to bear through life; he was a Millwall supporter. He bore this burden (loyalty to the extreme) with resignation and good humour, impervious to pleadings to transfer his affections to a more glamorous club. Perhaps this helped him to be the resilient and caring person he was.

Pager will be sorely missed by many, many people in Beaminster. He will be impossible to replace and we shall not see his like again.

Perhaps one incident sums up how much Brian felt the need to repay the town for their generosity to his family.

In 2004 he was nominated for the inaugural Terry Collin Award in recognition of his services to sport over the previous 40 years. His reaction to the news epitomised his view on life and of giving something back to the community.

Recalling the situation he said: "I thought long and hard about it and in the end was influenced by the ethics instilled in me by Len Marsh 50 years previously. It has been an honour to be able to give something back to the town that without requiring anything from my family when we arrived from London, showed such kindness to us."

Brian I think you have repaid them several times!

His funeral will be held at 10am on Saturday, April 18th at St Mary's Church and afterwards at Holy Trinity.

Melplash Agricultural Society launches new farming programme

MEMBERS of the Melplash Agricultural Society are encouraging young people of all ages to start a career in agriculture with the introduction of a new programme.

The group have launched Discover Farming in order to educate, inform and enthuse those interested in working in the farming industry.

The project started with a bursary scheme to support students entering or continuing in further education ten years ago, but has now been widened to include both primary and secondary school children.

More information, demonstrations and opportunities to learn will be available to children of all ages at the Society's events such as the Melplash Agricultural Show and the Hedge Laying and Ploughing Match.

Marcus Beresford, director of the Society who is championing the project along with George Streatfeild, said: "The Melplash Agricultural Society believes passionately that it is vitally important for the next generation to understand the role that farming and agriculture play in the local economy and environment.

"At a time of great technological change, the Society wishes to inspire the younger generation to take up careers in this exciting industry, not only in farming but also other rural industries."

For the first time, this year's Melplash Agricultural Show will feature a dedicated Discover Farming area with interactive demonstrations where children of all ages can get hands-on experience of a variety of 'farm to food' activities.

Those making career choices will be able to drive a simulator tractor or even work a drone of the kind used to inspect crops, and look at the latest apps used in farming.

Younger children can be more hands-on and try butter making, bread making and juicing apples – they might even be able to calve a cow.

Around the showground, and flagged by Discover Farming signs, there will be numerous other exhibits and demonstrations including, milking, sheep shearing, horseshoeing, cheese making and sausage making.

For young people considering a career in agriculture, the opportunity to meet and discuss further education options with specialists from Kingston Maurward College and with some of the Society's recent bursary students will be available in the Discover Farming marquee.

At the Hedge Laying and Ploughing Match in September, for those that are 13-years-old and over, there will be the opportunity to ride on a tractor, and for those aged 16-years-old and over, the opportunity to try their hand at ploughing a furrow.

Throughout the year, Washingpool Farm will also be hosting school visits where children will see up close and personal a number of farm activities and animals for which the Society will be arranging subsidised transport.

George Streatfeild said: "The Society is indebted to our many kind sponsors for helping us to deliver this programme, in particular we would like to thank the Alice Ellen Cooper Dean Foundation, Mole Valley Farmers Ltd, Dorset County Council and Bridport Town Council.

"Our most grateful thanks goes out to them all."

For more information or to discuss how to get involved and any ideas to develop this initiative further, contact the Society secretary on 01308 423337 or email secretary@melplashshow.co.uk

Net firms welcome visitors for Ropewalk Fair

THREE of Bridport's top netting businesses will be exclusively opening their doors as part of the Ropewalk Fair.

Huck Nets, Coastal Nets and Amsafe will be inviting the public into the factories for a chance to see behind the scenes.

Emily Hicks, the curator at Bridport Museum, said: "We are thrilled to have such prestigious partners for the Ropewalk Fair tours.

"Last year our tours booked up so quickly so we are urging people interested to sign up quickly to avoid disappointment."

The tours are free but donations are very much appreciated and places must be booked at Bridport Museum.

Any funds raised will go towards the restoration and redevelopment of the Literary and Scientific Institute and Bridport Museum.

Jon Legg-Bagg, managing director of Huck Nets, said: "At Huck we are committed to supporting our local community and therefore we are delighted to be the principal sponsor of this year's Ropewalk Fair and part of the guided tours."

Also, due to popular demand, there will be two guided walks around Bridport led by local historian Richard Sims.

Richard, a leading voice on the rope, net and twine industries, will bring to life the history of key sites such as the hidden ropewalks and old industrial buildings.

The guided walks leave the museum at 11am and 2pm on Saturday, May 9th and cost £2.50 per person.

The Huck Nets tours take place on Tuesday, May 5th at 10am, 12noon and 2pm, Coastal Net tours are on on Wednesday, May 6th at 10am, 12noon and 2pm and Amsafe Tours are on Friday, May 8th at 9.30am, 10.30am and 11.30am.

Places for factory tours and guided walks must be booked in advance due to limited space and past demand.

To book contact Bridport Museum at office@bridportmuseum.co.uk or call 01308 458703.

Craft centre welcomes two new businesses

BROADWINDSOR Craft Centre has got off to a brilliant year and welcomed two new businesses to its growing team.

Painted Vintage and Sophie Rose Soft Furnishings are the most recent businesses to set up shop in the craft centre's courtyard.

Linda Sherman, previously of Painted World, and Sally Davies from Miss French Vintage, have come together to offer customers a wide range of painted furniture under the new name Painted Vintage.

They have a large selection of items in their shop at Broadwindsor Craft Centre but can also paint personal items for customers or go to them if the piece is too big.

Linda said: "We opened at the beginning of March but I had spent 14 months as Painted World and Sally came along and we decided to join forces."

"We are aiming to be a go to shop for anything and everything for painting furniture – we can paint anything for anyone which is fantastic."

"We are hoping to be a one stop shop so people don't have to around in lots of places to find what they want."

Also, Sophie Linwood moved to the centre at the end of March with Sophie Rose Soft Furnishings.

She makes made to measure curtains, blinds, cushions and bedspreads from her unit at the Broadwindsor Craft Centre.

Customers will find examples of her work, a selection of cushions and display fabric books in the front of the shop while her workspace is just behind.

Painted Vintage is open Monday to Saturday while Sophie Rose Soft Furnishings is open on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays.

Comedy at Bridport Electric Palace

The Palace's monthly comedy network is also proving to be a great hit, with comedians fresh from the Edinburgh Fringe wowing the audiences.

THE next show is on Friday 24 April. Doors open at 7.15pm with an 8.15pm start. Tickets cost just £10 + 50p booking fee or £12 on door. You can get tickets from the Electric Palace box office 01308 428354, Bridport TIC on 01308 424901 or online via SeeTickets.

Naz Osmanoglu

Star of BBC3's Live at the Electric, winner of the Amused Moose Laugh-off Competition, Chortle Best Newcomer Nominee 2010 Naz

Osmanoglu has hit the London comedy circuit running. Already a fringe veteran with acclaimed, irreverent sketch trio WitTank, he is now diverting his angry Anglo-Turkish energy to stand-up as well as sketch comedy. WitTank will be shooting a pilot of The School for E4.

Naz recently finished filming as part of the main troupe on the sixth series of Horrible Histories (CBBC), which is due to air next year. He also appeared in an episode of Plebs for ITV.

Last year, Naz appeared on Live at the Electric with Wittank. Also in 2013, Naz filmed a series of shorts for BBC Online called Flat News, an idea he is currently developing with the BBC for TV.

Naz was selected to be one of the new stars on Laughtershock for BBC Three, a hybrid of stand up and sketch comedy, and returned to Edinburgh in 2010 as a performer in The Comedy Zone, the fringe's longest running new talent showcase and with another sellout show with Wittank.

Steve Bugeja

Steve Bugeja was crowned the 2013 BBC Radio New Comedy Award winner. He was also a finalist in the Amused Moose and Laughing Horse new act competitions, making him one of the stand-out new acts of the past few years. He supported Russell Kane on his 2013/14 national tour smallness as well as gigging at comedy clubs across the country.

A prolific writer, Steve has contributed material for Mock The Week, 8 out of 10 Cats and Russell Howard's Good News. In 2012 he won the BBC's Funny on Three sitcom competition along with his writing partner, which resulted in them developing a pilot script with BBC Comedy North. He also won the BBC's Jesting About 2 sketch competition, which culminated in his material featuring on a radio sketch show for BBC Newcastle. Steve has also contributed material to Radio 4's The Show What You Wrote and Radio 4 Extra's topical sketch show Newsjack. He is currently developing a pilot with BBC Radio Comedy.

Mark Smith

Mark Smith (Russell Howard's Good News, MTV) has been performing stand-up regularly since 2008 and has rapidly established himself as one of the most interesting and exciting comics on the circuit. Since reaching the final of So You Think You're Funny in 2009, Mark has gigged all over the UK, is a regular MC and has broken into television to present for MTV2 and to write and perform for Dick and Dom's Funny Business on BBC 2. When Mark is not gigging he is the warm-up for shows such as Have I Got News For You and Room 101 (both BBC1).

Water Babies make a splash in Bridport

BABIES as young as just as 12 weeks will soon be able to take part in multi-award winning swimming classes starting at Freshwater Beach Holiday Park in Burton Bradstock. The specialist classes, designed to make the most of babies' natural affinity with water, teach confidence and safety, using expert techniques that have been enjoyed by children from just two days old!

Rowan Bradford has been running Water Babies classes across Devon and Somerset since 2012, after emerging from her first lesson with baby Caitlin and realising that her face was aching from smiling constantly for 30 minutes. Rowan knew she'd found something truly special – 'sheer indulgent happiness' is how she describes it. 'Why wouldn't everyone want to do it?'

'We are so excited to offer even more local Water Babies and their parents the chance to bond and gain skills through swimming, when we start classes at Freshwater Beach Holiday Park in Burton Bradstock.'

While Water Babies lessons are fun for both parent and little one, the course also has an extremely serious added benefit. 'Worryingly, research we commissioned this year revealed that 75% of parents are unaware drowning is the third highest cause of accidental death in children in the UK', Rowan explains.

'In most cases it's the shock of sudden submersion that causes children to panic. We passionately believe that by introducing babies to water as early as possible, they'll be less likely to experience fear if they do fall in. Our research also showed that the average age children start swimming lessons is four, despite that fact they can start from birth. In fact, we've had pupils as young as just two days old.'

'With progressive training, babies can be taught lifesaving skills very early on such as turning onto their backs or, following a sudden submersion, swimming to the nearest solid object. In the last few years at least ten tiny Water Babies pupils have saved their own lives, five of whom were just two years old at the time. It's fantastic what vital skills children can learn, and it's so important that they do so as soon as possible.'

In addition to the more serious safety skills, another key focus of the half-hour sessions is enhancing bonding and generally having great fun together. Rowan adds: 'With research showing that new mothers are less likely to suffer from post-natal depression if they can gain support from their peers, that's another reason why we're very proud of what we do.'

Water Babies classes will be starting at Jurassic Fun Centre at Freshwater from May. For more information, please phone Amie and her friendly team on 01392 367860, email pushtheduck@waterbabies.co.uk or visit www.waterbabies.co.uk.

Unique Jazz-folk fusion from Flekd in Bridport

REPRESENTING some of the finest young jazz and folk musicians in London and Berlin, Flekd create beautiful folk/world-infused contemporary jazz which they will be bringing to the Bridport Arts Centre Jazz Café on Friday 24 April as part of their current tour of the UK.

Their fresh and uplifting sound delves into lively traditional celtic folk melodies around driving grooves, then slips into beautiful and engaging compositions from contemporary jazz angles, visiting rhythms from Indian and African traditions along the way. The group recently launched their eponymous debut EP and have performed around the UK including London's Southbank Centre and Forge.

Following several different guises, Flekd have arrived at a sound that is truly their own. Spear-headed by versatile flautist/accordionist Jane South, the first incarnation of the group formed whilst studying at the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama in Cardiff. Beginning with arrangements of traditional tunes, the band's repertoire is now largely made up of original material from several contributing members.

Lively folk-inflected jazz from this five-piece band playing between them flute, accordion, piano, guitar, bass and percussion. Their music delves into lively traditional celtic folk melodies around driving grooves, then slips into beautiful and engaging compositions from contemporary jazz angles, visiting rhythms from Indian and African traditions along the way.

With fantastic jazz guitarist Moss Freed bringing skillful, engaging twisting melodic lines, superb jazz bass player Rob Paterson balances soft atmospheric emotive lines with sophisticated grooves, feel and sensitivity. Rebecca Nash brings a delicate, evocative feel on the piano, with rich, expansive shapes and rhythms blending with Matt Fisher's sizzling layers of subtle and far-reaching layers of percussion that underpin the sound with contemporary jazz as well as the traditional folk music of India and Africa. Sonorous melodies that evoke European folk traditions, with Jane on the flute and accordion, journey onwards to beautiful, thoughtful improvisations and rich new soundscapes.

The five musicians bounce off each other with a feel, atmosphere and a sound that is evocative, accessible yet not conventional, they explore the elements of contemporary jazz, classical and folk music that are integral to each of them as accomplished musicians, without overpowering the sense of the melodies and forms themselves. Shaping new forms of traditional styles of music with jazz sensibilities and contemporary ideas of development, they are in an exciting realm of contemporary writing that uncovers both the familiar and unfamiliar.

Penelope Retold

Olivier Award Nominee
Caroline Horton brings one woman show to the Marine Theatre

OLIVIER Award nominee and Stage Best Solo Performer Caroline Horton is currently touring 'compelling monodrama' (The Guardian) Penelope Retold, coming to the Marine Theatre on Wednesday, April 22nd.

Having already gained huge critical acclaim and congratulatory audience responses since its premiere at Derby Theatre in 2014, Penelope Retold tells an epic, heart-breaking and fiercely playful tale of love, loneliness and the need to be free.

Welcome to Ithaca. Island paradise and home to Penelope. She's married to a world famous war hero and she's had enough of waiting quietly. Made with input from soldiers and military spouses, Penelope Retold is an irreverent collision of classic myth, The Odyssey and contemporary rage.

Get ready for a theatrical storm that sweeps through poetry, songs, comedy and YouTube clips towards a poignant and furious conclusion.

The show takes place at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Wednesday, April 22nd at 8pm. To book tickets contact the TIC on 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com

Somtum Thai Café & Take Away

TUCKED at the bottom of West Street in Bridport you will find a hidden gem in the form of Somtum Thai Café & Takeaway. Somtum is a family run restaurant and take away, cooking authentic Thai Cuisine. The restaurant is now open every evening for dinner, as well as Tuesday to Saturday from 12-3pm for one of the most reasonably priced lunches in town.

Having now been open for 2 years, Somtum has established itself as a very popular Bridport eatery, which is justified by its 5 star rating on trip advisor!

The lunch menu boasts outstanding value for money with three courses for just £7.95, or alternatively, a one course quick lunch for just £5.95. It's not just the price that is great either; the quality of food is also outstanding. The food is freshly prepared, vibrant, authentic Thai cuisine, which leaves a lasting impression on the taste buds. The owner, and highly experienced Thai chef, Rojjana, lovingly prepares it all.

In addition to the now reputable evening take away and delivery service, customers can dine in the intimate restaurant as well. The evening menu also provides great value for money with three set menu options. They include a fantastic vegetarian set menu with seven dishes for just £14.50 per person (for a minimum of two people or more), through to a four-course menu for just £20.95 per person (again based on a minimum of two people or more). You can also bring your own alcohol to the restaurant to enjoy and help keep the cost of your evening out to a minimum!

Rojjana is no stranger to Bridport, having lived in the town for fourteen years, but she comes from Sakonnakorn, in the North East of Thailand, where cooking was a way of life. Having moved to England she ran her own business in Gloucestershire before moving to Bridport and spending ten years working as a chef in a Thai restaurant.

Everything at Somtum is home made, (including all the wonderful sauces, such as the tamarind, and sweet and sour sauces, to name but two) with local, fresh ingredients that are quickly cooked to preserve their nutrients and delicate flavours. Rojjana uses traditional herbs & spices, a number of which are exported specifically from Thailand, to create unmistakable, authentic Thai flavours, with no artificial flavours or colourings.

Rojjana's North Eastern Thai roots and her hometown heavily influence the menu, so those wanting to taste traditional Thai cuisine can enjoy authentic dishes, such as sticky rice, which has proven very popular in Bridport! It's cooked in the traditional way from North Eastern Thailand and goes particularly well with Somtum Gai yang, and any form of Thai chicken curry!

The other most popular dishes include the Somtum Thai mixed platter to start, which comes with Thai spring rolls, chicken satay, prawn toast, prawn tempura, and a selection of sauces. Of the main courses the roasted duck breast, on crispy rice noodles with tamarind sauce, as well as the traditional Pad Thai, and Thai green curry are extremely popular as always.

All customers are met with a warm welcome from the friendly staff, who are more than happy to explain what the dishes consist of to those who are more unfamiliar with Thai cuisine.

The restaurant is currently open between 12-3pm for eat in meals Tuesday to Saturday, and is open every evening for both eat in and take away from 5-11pm. Delivery is free to anybody within a 3 mile radius, with a minimum order of £30. Please place any big orders for large parties in advance (up to 24 hours) to keep waiting times for everybody down to a minimum.

Cut out the voucher on the page opposite and enjoy 10% off your take away at Somtum on collection only, call 01308 420004 to place your order.

Jurassic Fields Music Festival

ORANGE STREET TO HEADLINE JURASSIC FIELDS MUSIC FESTIVAL

SKA band Orange Street will be headlining this year's Jurassic Fields Music Festival on July 11th.

Last year's event, the first of its kind in West Dorset, received glowing praise from all quarters including the sponsors, local council, the bands and the public, for its content and the professional way in which it was planned and organised, and the organisers are determined to make this one even better.

The daylong "not for profit" event will once again be held at Asker Meadows, Bridport on Saturday July 11th from 10am -11pm.

Orange Street was formed in 1996 by 2 brothers Lee and Ryan Fletcher with some school friends and have become hugely popular all over the country. They have supported Madness at Gullfest and have been joined on stage by various members of The Specials, and one of their original songs "Rough" topped the Ska charts.

Local band The Gravity Drive will be headlining the second stage. A husband and wife harmony driven alt-pop duo, they self finance, promote and release their music on their own label working from their cottage near Bridport.

Described as: "Mighty and fabulous live", by Radio 2 DJ Janice Long they have managed to find themselves in the Radio 2 playlist meeting a couple of times, a little victory for an act with no label, management or pluggers.

Comedy on the third stage will be headlined by Adam Kay who is known for singing smutty songs at a piano. He has sold out seven Edinburgh Festivals and three nationwide tours, and has had over 10 million hits on YouTube, including the iconic London Underground song.

Following their success last year festival favourites Shelby's Elbows and The Leggomen will be returning, this time to grace the main stage.

Shelby's Elbows are an acoustic duo, made up of Dorset musicians Martin P. Davies and Phil Jeffs, who play a variety of instruments and produce an instantly recognisable sound that surprises people when they discover that there's only two people making it. Besides writing and recording their own original music their set covers anything from Nirvana to Neil Young, Seal to Skynyrd, Dire Straits to Turin Brakes and anything in between.

The Leggomen are now in a full band capacity since the last festival and have four band members and a proper drum kit too! Delivering a blend of modern pop and rock as well as older classic tunes and original songs, they play covers from the Stone Roses to Passenger, Mumford & Sons, Avicci, Oasis and many more.

Regulars on the festival scene Hobo Jones & The Junkyard Dogs are one of the most unique musical acts on the circuit today. Covering a wide range of music from genuine 1950's skiffle such as Lonnie Donegan, through Led Zepplin & The Doors, via Johnny Cash to modern classics such as Green Day, Motorhead and even The Pussycat Dolls, this band appeal to a wide range of ages & tastes.

Another new act to perform at the festival is Gaz Brookfield, a solo acoustic musician based in Bristol. He won Acoustic magazine's 2010 Singer Songwriter of the year, and remains the only unsigned solo act to sell out The Fleece, Bristol, a feat he has achieved four times!

The Mother Ukers are a ukulele band performing covers and original material using ukuleles of all shapes and sizes to take you on a musical journey. With songs and flavours of modern pop, punk, classic rock, the Swinging 60s, Fabulous 50s and the roaring 20s.

Kent-based mechanical alt-blues band, Funke and the Two Tone Baby will also be performing combining effects pedals, beatboxing and grooving bass lines with traditional instrumentation, powerful vocals and relentless energy.

Also on the bill are The Barefoot Bandit who are a British reggae/dub band based in Devon, their sound mixing catchy melodies with exciting rhythms to create a combination of roots reggae and deep dark dub.

Rising star Lauren Bannon, a contestant on the BBC show "I'd Do Anything" will be taking to the stage and is an inspiring, singer-songwriter from Weymouth, as will local band The Calloborators, an eight piece influenced by Ska/Funk/Soul/Jazz, and another local band The Pickwicks, whose aim is to uplift the soul and move the feet.

Sweet Black Angels who have recently supported The Levellers and The Specials will be performing an acoustic set from their three albums, and Koast an original indie funk band who also deliver progressive covers of current popular material from all charts and genres, complete the line-up.

In addition there will be a number of youth acts and young musicians performing on the third stage, whilst local music group Pop Club will be performing along with Howl Open Mic sessions and our resident DJ Tatoo'd Beat-Mesiah.

POP-UP OPERA COMING TO THE TITHE BARN, SYMONDSBURY

POP-UP Opera is an innovative touring opera company dedicated to making opera enjoyable and inviting, without losing the quality of musical performance.

The production in the Tithe Barn is Rossini's L'italiana in Algeri (The Italian girl in Algiers)

Isabella the Italian girl is one of the wisest and most formidable women you'll ever find in opera. Nobody would dare call her a girl, and by the time her story ends, no-one – including her captive lover – is willing to stand in her way. Elvira, wife of the powerful Mustafa, thinks he no longer loves her. He is indeed tired of her and sets her up with Lindoro, a young Italian man recently captured on the high seas by Mustafa's pirates. What Mustafa really wants is an Italian girl. Cue a shipwreck and all havoc breaks loose...

The idea for Pop-up Opera was born during the summer of 2010 after company founder and operatic soprano Clementine Lovell staged a series of opera scenes in a Herefordshire barn. This venue normally staged folk music and blues, so a large percentage of the audiences were not familiar with opera, yet the concerts were a huge success. Having spent two years living in Italy, where opera comes to small towns and theatres, Clementine saw no reason why the same could not happen in Britain. These experiences came together to form Pop-up Opera; a unique and unconventional touring opera company.

Doors open from 6pm for a 7pm start. Tickets are £25 for Opera only or £45 for Opera and Dinner in Symondsbury Kitchen. Available from the Symondsbury Estate Office in Manor Yard, Symondsbury. Please call: 01308 424116

RACHAEL ROBERTS JAZZ BAND AT SYMONDSBURY ESTATE

SYMONDSBURY Estate are hosting an Afternoon of Jazz with The Rachael Roberts Jazz Band & DJ James Baker in the Tithe Barn at Manor Yard, Symondsbury on Sunday, April 26th.

Having developed a love of performing and recording when just 15 years old, singer/songwriter Rachael Roberts had written a huge amount of material by the time she moved to Bristol in the late 90s. Influenced by Portishead, Massive Attack and Zero 7, she was also listening to jazz vocalists such as Billie Holiday, Sarah Vaughan and Ella Fitzgerald. Her electronic/jazz style tracks began getting attention with Giles Peterson voting her in the top ten of 'rising stars'.

In 2008 Rachael was signed to Peter Gabriel's publishing company Real World Works, and her debut album 'Quietude' was released on Long Tale Recordings, produced by Alex Swift (Massive Attack, Amy Winehouse). Although electronic based, the album features beautiful instrumentation with jazz undertones. The clarinet, flute and brass were all performed by her father, acclaimed jazz musician Tony Roberts and recorded by Rachael in a little wooden room in the middle of a Dorset forest!

Alongside Rachael's songwriting she has, over the years developed a love affair with jazz. She began performing jazz standards with The Chaser Quartet in 2003 which led to the band recording an album at 'The Exchange' studio in London. Performing well known greats in ballad, bossa and swing styles while delivering her signature smooth vocal. The Rachael Roberts Jazz Band features some of the finest musicians in the South West, including Tony Roberts (sax), Richard Llewelyn (guitar) and Ben Taylor (Double Bass).

DJ James Baker has been DJing for over 20 years and has a vast collection of over seven thousand records. Strictly a vinyl DJ he covers a wide range of diverse music; from funk soul and jazz fusion through to electronica, house and Detroit techno...and beyond. The perfect DJ to compliment an afternoon of Jazz.

Doors open on Sunday 26th April at 1pm for a 2pm start. Tickets are £10 available from the Symondsbury Estate Office in Manor Yard, Symondsbury. Please call: 01308 424116

The Out Loud Festival to be officially launched in Weymouth

A NEW two-day charity street music and entertainment festival has been officially launched in Weymouth.

The Out Loud Festival will run from June 27th-28th throughout the town centre with a main stage in New Bond Street, other stages in different parts of the town centre and performances in pubs at night.

Its joint organisers are Weymouth and Portland Lions Club and Weymouth Business Improvement District which is supporting the festival.

Lions spokesman Trevor Stratton said: "It is a brave new attempt to bring music and entertainment into the streets of Weymouth during the shoulder season and increase spending and visitor numbers in the town.

"It will also be raising money for a variety of local charities."

Former Weymouth and Portland Mayor, Ray Banham, is organising all the acts.

He said: "I want to hear from any singer, choir, band or group who would like to take part in the festival.

"I also want to hear from dance groups such as salsa, belly dancers, Bollywood, clog and morris dancers, any form of dance.

"We want to make this event as colourful as possible, so we are also looking for face painters, clowns static display artists and buskers.

"Anyone interested should contact me on 07788-792114 or email at raybanham62@gmail.com."

Weymouth BID chairman Steve Newstead said: "The Out Loud Festival will give businesses an opportunity to build promotions and offers around the event to encourage more visitors to spend in the town and enjoy the Festival.

"One of the BID's business objectives is to drive more visitors into the town during the shoulder season months and the Out Loud Festival ticks all the boxes."

Top of The Line Volvo XC90

VOLVO Cars will unveil the most luxurious vehicle ever built by the Swedish company in its 88 year history at the Shanghai International Automobile Show – an elegant and refined four-seat version of its recently launched XC90.

The XC90 Excellence has been crafted by Volvo's designers and engineers to offer customers a distinct and individual automotive experience that incorporates the latest Scandinavian innovations in design, refinement, comfort and style.

The XC90 Excellence is based on Volvo's all new XC90 sports utility vehicle, but the similarity ends there. The XC90 Excellence has just four seats compared to the original's seven, creating an enormous amount of additional space for rear seat passengers that helps to deliver an exceptional customer experience.

This space is utilised to offer a First Class automotive experience that begins with broad, spacious individual reclining rear seats complete with massage, ventilation and increased leg room, as well as a retractable control touchscreen, folding tables, a refrigerator with bottle and glass holders, a heating/cooling cup holder and handmade crystal glasses from leading Swedish glass design company, Orrefors.

"This is our new flagship car," said Thomas Ingenlath, Senior Vice President, Design. "We have created the ultimate luxury experience of Scandinavian design. Volvo has never launched a car like this before. This is the car that demonstrates what the name Volvo now means."

The XC90 Excellence offers its passengers

footrests, ambient lighting, illuminated storage and unique leather detailing in blond or charcoal, a luggage compartment dividing screen, additional sound insulation in the cabin and Pirelli Noise Cancelling System tyres (PNCS).

XC90 Excellence passengers will also enjoy a specially-augmented Bowers & Wilkins audio system that adds an extra speaker to its 19 speaker system, resulting in unrivalled high fidelity sound reproduction and surround effect in the rear seats.

"What we have designed is amongst the best rear seat experiences available in a luxury car," said Mr Ingenlath. "The result is a superlative environment for relaxed comfort or doing business."

Reinforcing the Swedish love of fresh air, the XC90 Excellence also comes with an integrated ionic air cleaner in the CleanZone climate system. The ionic air cleaner works by positively charging electrons in airborne particles (dust or smoke for example) so they are removed from suspension in the cabin environment.

The XC90 Excellence also offers a leather instrument panel with contrasting thread, while the headliner of the cabin is colour coordinated pure Nubuck textile. Exterior styling differentiators including an Excellence rank mark, chrome B- and C-pillar cappings and lower door mouldings.

Vauxhall took the wraps off the new Corsa VXR

▲ Vauxhall Corsa VXR

BENEFITING from the significant revisions in technology, interior/exterior design and chassis showcased in the recently launched New Corsa, the VXR is set to raise the bar for small, fast hatchbacks when it appears in UK showrooms in May.

First launched in 2007, the Corsa VXR is now in its second generation. The original car spawned four special editions: VXR Racing, VXR Artic, VXR Nürburgring and VXR Clubsport. UK sales exceed 9,000 vehicles.

Priced from £17,995 on-the-road, the Corsa VXR's list price has been rolled back by over £1,000 versus the outgoing model. It's also less expensive than key competitors including the Volkswagen Polo GTi, the Renault Sport Clio and the Ford Fiesta ST2.

Customers can now buy a VXR Performance Pack for £2,400 which specs the Corsa VXR up to a Nürburgring/Clubsport equivalent, but for £2,000 less than the previous model. The pack features a motorsport-derived Drexler Limited Slip Differential (LSD), Brembo four-piston brakes and re-tuned Koni FSD system above the standard set up.

Making it even more affordable, the Corsa VXR will be available on either zero per cent Flexible Finance or Flexible PCP with a £500 Vauxhall deposit contribution.

Powertrain

Headline performance figures for the Corsa VXR are 0-60mph in 6.5 seconds and a top speed of 143mph – quicker than the outgoing car, but more importantly the VXR produces its 245Nm of torque from lower revs (between 1,900rpm – 5,800rpm, compared with 2,250rpm – 5,500rpm for the outgoing Nürburgring and ClubSport models). This makes the VXR a potent performer between 50-75mph, which it can dispatch in just 6.4 seconds in fifth gear.

An overboost facility provides an additional 35Nm of torque, ideal for swift and safe overtaking. Maximum power from its 1.6-litre turbocharged engine is 205PS, while the Corsa VXR achieves 37.7mpg on the combined cycle with CO2 emissions of 174g/km.

Development

Vauxhall's powertrain engineers had to re-develop numerous components in the VXR's engine to achieve its impressive performance values.

"We initially thought that the Nürburgring Edition of the Corsa VXR represented the end of the line from a developmental point of view," said Volker Strycek, Vauxhall/Opel's Director Performance Cars and Motorsport.

"But the new Corsa VXR actually makes its predecessors look almost ordinary. Improved power delivery across the entire rev band, more power especially at low revs and moderate consumption for a car with this performance including compliance with Euro-6 emissions standard make the Corsa VXR a benchmark in its class."

Engineers constructed a completely new intake line leading to the turbocharger. A new intercooler is also used. New fuel injectors, controlled by the new engine management system, ensure an even finer and more precise delivery of fuel. This results in a noticeable improvement in responsiveness, especially at low engine speeds, and optimised power output at higher engine speeds.

The exhaust system is almost completely new. Working with exhaust specialists Remus, Vauxhall engineers developed a new exhaust manifold with an integrated turbocharger.

They also sound engineered to Lex Ferrari, a rule on pass-by-noise. An amendment in the European regulation allows performance cars over 190PS output and 102PS/ton to produce one extra decibel. The Corsa VXR twin-pipe exhaust is exactly in line with legal pass-by-noise regulations.

Dacia To Enter UK LCV Market With Duster Commercial

DACIA today announces plans to enter the UK light commercial vehicle market later this year with a commercial version of the Duster SUV – Duster Commercial. The announcement was made at the start of the CV Show 2015, which runs at the NEC in Birmingham from April 14 to 16.

In keeping with Dacia's strapline of 'You do the maths' – a nod to its no nonsense approach to value – TV presenter and mathematical whizz, Rachel Riley will be on the Dacia stand during the CV Show for an interactive launch of the Duster Commercial.

The new Duster Commercial models – available in 4x2 and 4x4 guises – have been created at the specific request of Dacia UK and Dacia Ireland, where car-derived vans account for 30 per cent of the LCV market.

Andy Heiron, Dacia Brand Manager in the UK, said: "With the Dacia brand now established as part of the UK motoring landscape following two very successful years of growth, we now feel the time is right to launch a Duster product in the commercial vehicle sector. Having previously considered local adaptations, the shift of production location to Europe gave us the opportunity to have an N1-homologated product direct from the factory.

"Our aim is to bring Duster – the Renault Group's global best-seller – to the UK's van buyers in true Dacia style with a value-for-money product and transparent pricing. Owners and drivers will benefit from a practical and functional vehicle that can be serviced and maintained in our network of 223 dealers and service outlets."

New Legislation Causing Motorists To Fail MOT

A FAULTY Tyre Pressure Monitoring System (TPMS) is now causing an automatic MOT fail and is already catching motorists out – does your car have it and how do you know if it's working?

Millions of cars in the UK are fitted with tyre pressure monitoring systems, or TPMS, which monitor the vehicle's tyre pressure and will alert the driver to over- or under-inflation. As of 1 January 2015, a car displaying a TPMS fault when submitted for its MOT will result in a test failure.

To save you from a stressful situation when you MOT your car TyreSafe, the UK's tyre safety association, have produced a simple video to help motorists understand the safety features of this technology.

"Although TPMS technology has been around for decades, its inclusion in new model vehicles has only been mandated in Europe since 2012 and on all new cars since 2014. This led to a gradual introduction into the market over a period of years and with little or no fanfare to help educate motorists,"

When checking pressures, it is advisable to also give the rest of the tyre a thorough visual inspection as well as ensuring the tread is not excessively or unevenly worn.

"This is why we have produced a video: to communicate the importance of TPMS and how to use it effectively," concluded Jackson. "They make sure drivers know their tyre pressure when it's most important – while they are driving."

The TPMS video is one part of a wider TPMS campaign from TyreSafe, who have produced a range of informational products including leaflets and posters that can be found on the website.

Manual checks

While the benefits of TPMS are widely recognised, it is important that they are not seen as a replacement for regular manual tyre safety checks. Pressures should be tested at least once a month or before any long journey, when the tyres are cold using an accurate and reliable pressure gauge.

TPMS servicing

To ensure your TPMS system continues to operate properly and reduce the likelihood of an MOT failure, it may be necessary to have the system serviced occasionally. TPMS sensors are designed to last for many years and miles, however, after a certain period, the sensor's internal battery will run out meaning a replacement is needed.

In addition, sensors can become faulty or fail completely as a result of weather damage, corrosion or accidental damage caused when changing tyres. To ensure the sensor remains in good condition, many manufacturers recommend replacement of the valve cap and core components every time a tyre is changed.

When replacement TPMS sensors are fitted to your vehicle, your tyre fitter may need to programme the new component to the car using specialist diagnostic equipment. If your TPMS sensor does develop a fault, under no circumstances should this be removed and replaced with a 'standard' non-TPMS type valve. Removing the sensor will not only reduce your safety on the road, it will also result in your car failing its MOT.

MIDWEEK ROUND-UP

Monday, April 7th

Drimpton Res 2 Merriott Rovers 5

TWO of the PSDL's 'newest' teams went toe-to-toe at Misterton on Easter Monday morning with the Reg Eglon Cup at stake.

Merriott of course have long and rich history in the league, but they were forced to reapply for entry at the AGM last June having folded for a year due to the delay in changing facilities at their Recreation Ground.

But they are back with a bang having won 21 games on the trot, all be it in Division Four, and they continued the run to defeat Drimpton Reserves.

Rovers, who led all the way, were in control at 3-1 at half-time and cruise to victory despite a battling performance from Drimpton side who themselves came into the game in good end of season form and unbeaten in five.

Josh Thomason (2), Sam Rowswell, Barry Willis and Dan Rudge scored for Rovers with Adam Tanner and player-manager Jason Mallett replying.

Lyme Regis 4 Axmouth United 0

LYME Regis kept the heat on Exmouth Town Reserves in the chase for second spot in the D & E Division Three with a dominant second half display against neighbours Axmouth United in front of a crowd of 120 on Wednesday evening.

The hosts, with Rikki Sargent in sparkling form on his Davey Fort debut, went closest in the early exchanges; Sam Jones had a goal-bound shot deflected wide following a clever back heel from Mark Bailey. Jones' re-sulting corner kick found Matt Laing at the far post but his header was kicked off the line.

The opening goal came in the 18th minute when Joe Bond burst into the D only to have his shot blocked – his follow up effort was handled by a defender and referee Glyn Roberts pointed to the spot and Bond made no mistake from 12 yards.

The lead was doubled 10 minutes into the second-half when Sargent showed his pace to beat the visitors' stand-in keeper Scott Dyer to a through ball and deftly guided it into the net from the corner of the box.

The result was assured three minutes later when Dyer's miss-kick fell straight to Dec Ellis who selfless crossed for Bond to unerringly smash the ball home for his 26th goal of the season.

The scoring was completed in the 69th minute when Kieren White's cross was missed by Bond but his marker Mike Challis unfortunately turned the ball into his own net.

Defender Dom Rowe went close to adding to his impressive goal tally when he sneaked onto a cross from substitute Joel Gostling but Dyer did well to parry from point-blank range.

Lyme: L.Cleal, C.Larcombe, K.White, D.Rowe, G.Knight, M.Laing (capt), M.Bailey, S.Jones, D.Ellis, R.Sargent, J.Bond. Subs used; J.Gostling, J.Simier, W.Blackmore.

PSDL DIVISION TWO
Crewkerne Rangers 6

Charmouth 1

IT'S been feared at Barrs Lane for a while now but Charmouth were assured of a bottom two finish and, depending on a possible league reshuffle, relegation down into Division Three for the first time in 16 years after a midweek caning at Wadham School.

Jack Male (2), Aaron Hole (2), Andy Loveless and og made up the hosts' half dozen while Jake Reeve bagged the Robins' consolation.

Uplyme 6 Crewkerne Town Res 1

MOVING in opposite direction are Uplyme who made it six points in four days to cruise into midtable in Division Two.

"Our best result of the season," was Swallows' manager Steve Gillan's assessment of the 6-1 win over Crewkerne Town Reserves who's hopes of catching Thorncombe for the runners-up spot took a blow.

Ryan Prendeville (2), Dan Boot (2), Tom Gollop and an Og saw Uplyme home with Kieran Adams replying.

Saturday, April 11th
D & E League Division Three
Chagford 0 Lyme Regis 3

LYME Regis moved up to second spot, and all-but clinched promotion, with a routine victory in the beautiful surroundings of the impressive Warren View Ground on Saturday.

The match itself was a distinctly low-key affair almost from the opening whistle.

Seasiders' skipper Matt Laing had an early header saved from corner but it was French striker Julien Simier who opened the scoring in the 17th minute with a cool sidefooted finish into the corner to round off a neat three-man move.

Simier went close with a volley just over the bar ten minutes later but wasn't to be denied on the half-hour when he tapped-in Joe Bond's low cross.

Lyme crafted more chances before the break with the best move of the match culminating in Sam Jones volleying over the bar and then Bond clipping a one-on-one chance just wide.

Top-scorer Bond was then denied a stonewall penalty after being fouled in the box in first-half injury-time.

After the break Simier squandered a golden chance for a hat-trick when he blasted over when well-placed.

But the highlight of a lacklustre second-half was Sam Jones' curling cross-come shot that clipped high up the inside of the post and flashed into the top corner.

The only anxious moment at the other end came when keeper Lee Cleal stood on the ball when dribbling past an onrushing striker just outside his box.

But Cleal recovered and chalked up a clean sheet as the Seasiders moved ever closer to promotion in their first ever foray into the Devon league.

Lyme: Lee Cleal, K.White, D.Rowe, G.Knight (B.Whittington 79), C.Larcombe, M.Bailey, M.Laing (capt), J.Simier, J.Gostling (D.Ellis 63), S.Jones, J.Bond (A.Bellworthy 71).

PREMIER

Beaminster 1 Shepton Beau 4

BEAMINSTER came into Saturday's game at the Memorial Ground with a bare 11 players while Shepton were missing four key members.

But the visitors kept alive their hopes of a runners-up place with goal from Dan Smith (2), Judd Sweet – a fine 20-yard shot – and Sam Hodgkinson.

Josh Baker, on target for the fourth game in row, scored the Rainbows' consolation.

Combe Res 0 Crewkerne Town 3
CREWKERNE Town duly secured their 14th Premier Division title on the Slades Cross Slope.

The first half was goal less until injury time when Pete Symes broke the deadlock. Symes struck again after the turnaround to seal the win and Liam Riste rounded things off.

Misterton 2 Lyme Regis Res 7
LYME Regis Reserves said farewell to the PSDL with plenty of smiles with a win over a Misterton side who joined in with the end-of-season feel in good spirits.

The Seasiders decided their playing positions by pulling names out of a hat. This gave a rare start to player-manager Gerard Hitchcock – whose first half penalty was his 145th league goal – before limping over and taking the gloves off 'keeper' Ally Rattenbury.

Rattenbury also got on the scoresheet as did Mark Batey (2), Cameron Fowler (2) and Alex Rowe as Lyme completed their campaign in eighth position.

Chaz Warren and Stuart Coles netted for the hosts.

DIVISION ONE

Chard Utd 2 Pymore 3

A PRICELESS three points have taken Pymore to one win from safety with two games remaining.

The visitors took the lead after just two minutes courtesy of a neat finish from striker Adam Cody-Boutcher.

But Chard stormed down the Jocelyn Park slope and Jamie Brown deservedly levelled before the break.

The hosts took the lead through Tom Newport and things looked bleak for Pymore.

But, knowing only a win would really help their cause the west Dorset through caution to the wind and struck back when Rob Wayland's shot was turned into his own net by a defender.

A carbon-copy result followed just five minutes later with another unfortunate United player diverting another Wayland cross into the net.

Relieved Pymore manager Stuart Hedditch said afterwards: "I would like to thank every player for their efforts today, they were under huge pressure to get a win against a decent Chard side."

"Dean Obstancias Fred Parsons and Adam Cody-Boutcher had excellent games but my MoM was Rob Wayland."

Lyme Bantams 2 Farway Utd 1

LYME Bantams' management duo of Darren Poole and Mark Hodder signed off their time at the helm with a gutsy win that may well be enough to clinch a superb fifth place finish.

Despite playing the first-half with 10 men Shaun Stewart headed Lyme ahead in the 25th minute with his 13th goal of the season.

But the Devonians, desperately clinging on to faint hopes of beating relegation, equalised through Dylan Gair before half-time.

The Seasiders, now up to a full complement, improved after the break and Pete Peacock netted what proved to be the winner just before the hour mark.

Netherbury 1 Forton Rangers 2

NETHERBURY suffered a hangover from their magnificent Dorset Junior Cup Final victory just 48 hours previously and were hit by a surprise defeat by beleaguered Forton Rangers.

Netherbury's hopes of finishing runners up in Division One were dented on Saturday as their fine unbeaten league run came to end at home to Forton Rangers. After the efforts of Thursday night's Cup Final playing a game so soon was always going to be tough and so it proved.

After a goal less first-half the Ambers were caught five minutes after the turnaround when Andy Stevenson got in between his defenders and broke the deadlock.

The killer second goal came when Stevenson ran from within his own half to just remain onside, escaped the chasing defenders and slotted passed keeper Rob Hart.

Netherbury did pull one back when Karl Ives scored with a backward close range header.

Netherbury Manager Andy Loudon said "I knew today was going to be tough and with Ryan Gall, Richard Pincombe, Tom Franklin and Zak Hawker all unavailable I was lucky to be able to name a couple of subs!"

"We were understandably below our normal standard and it was noticeable our normal energy and pressure in the last 15 minutes wasn't there".

DIVISION TWO

Ilminster Town A 0 Uplyme 13

UPLYME manager Steve Gillan had words of praise for opponents Ilminster Town A after they were mauled by the Swallows for the second time this season: "I really felt for them. They try and play football with no nastiness – I hope they can build again for next season."

Uplyme led 4-0 at half-time and went on to record their biggest win since Haselbury were thrashed 13-1 some 10 seasons ago.

Four-goal MoM Dan Boot moved to the top of the team's goal scoring chart with 14 with the other goals coming from Ryan Prendeville (3), Tom Gollop (2), Niall Fifer, Jon Davies, Will Francis and an OG.

Beaminster Res 2 Crewkerne Res 3

CHARMOUTH'S midweek defeat meant Beaminster Reserves came into Saturday's game knowing their Division Two status was safe.

But manager Ian Butcher was nonetheless disappointed to see his side slip to defeat. "We hit the woodwork three times and had two good penalty shouts turned down," said Butcher.

Gary Corry put the hosts ahead only for Aaron Hodges to equalise before half-time and then put the Tigers ahead.

Kieran Hawkins grabbed a levelled for the Rainbows but Paul Gold snatched the winner for Crewkerne.

Centre-back Billy Browning was Butcher's choice as his MoM.

DIVISION FOUR

Chard Rangers Reserves 2

Uplyme Reserves 2

GOALS from Craig Coles and Todd Lewendon saw Uplyme Reserves finally draw a line under a highly 11-game losing run.

The hosts led through an Andrew Griffin goal at half-time but Coles cracked home a 20-yarder to equalise in the 65th minute.

Rich Foote restored the Rangers slender lead only for Lewendon to net the point saver with a neat flick over the onrushing keeper.

Rugby U9s shine in season climax

BRIDPORT Under 9s travelled to Chard for a three cornered fixture against the hosts, Crewkerne and Tor. They performed superbly to finish their season in style, winning all three games with some of the best rugby they have played this term. They beat TOR by 13 tries to two in their first game with Stanley Cooper (5), Barney Johnson (4), Charles Edwards (3) and Dom Burdett the scorers.

CREWKERNE were a tougher proposition, but a last minute try from Edwards swung it Bridport's way by five tries to four. Cooper, Edwards and Johnson again on the scoresheet. In their last game Chard defended well, but Bridport did even better, conceding only one try and scoring seven through Johnson (3), Cooper (2) Edwards and Henry Everitt.

This side has improved beyond recognition this season and has had a lot of fun along the way. The 1st XV had a day off when New Milton were unable raise a side for this fixture, so the seniors played a friendly game amongst themselves.

Bridport Jurassic Coast Run is gaining pace

WITH less than three months to go, preparations for the third Bridport Jurassic Coast Run are gaining pace. The course has been set, flyers have been printed and the first applications for entrants are arriving already.

The Bridport Jurassic Coast Run is taking place on Sunday, July 12th, with races starting from 10.30 am at the Bridport Leisure Centre.

Again, the event is being organised jointly by Bridport Runners, Brit Valley Rotary Club and the Bridport Leisure Centre.

Similar to last year there will be three different races on offer; a 10k run for runners 16 years and older, a 5k for anyone older than 12 years old, and a one mile race for boys and girls 12 years and under. There will also be a Fun Run or Treasure Hunt for younger visitors as well.

Also available on the day will be a bouncy castle and the free use of the swimming pool in the Leisure Centre.

Last year saw more than 130 runners participating, with the youngest being five years old, the eldest 72 years, and included runners from as far afield as Bristol, including Paul Jefferson who won the 10k, London and even the Netherlands.

The record for the 10k route which leads runners to the top of Thorncombe Beacon near Eype; the second highest hill on the south coast; and then back through West Bay is held by Bridport Runners' own Ben Renshaw, who managed the course in 2013 in 49 minutes 21 seconds.

The 5k race which also includes the Jurassic Coast at West Bay has been won both years by Harrison Yarnold who completed the course last year in 25:24 which is the record.

The best time on the flat one-mile track on the fields near the Leisure Centre was run in 2014 and won by Olivia Whitmore in 7:23.

For anyone interested in joining the fun entry forms are now available at the reception of Bridport Leisure Centre and online on Runners World; see "Bridport Jurassic Coast Run" under "Events".

Harry bags a pair to triumph in opener

HARRY Courtice won the first competition of the new Saturday Junior season, the Fred Tolley Memorial Trophy, with a pair of flounders.

Eleven junior members signed on to fish this opening match held in memory of the late Fred Tolley on a bright but breezy day on the East Pier. Fishing can often be poor at the start of the junior matches but eight competitors managed to weigh in. Eden Lynham took the lead with the first fish, a flounder, but soon others came to the scales.

One species not often seen this early in the year is the venomous weever, but two appeared during the match; the first one was captured by Caolan Ayers and the second by his sister, Shannon, who was fishing for the first ever time.

Only one other round fish showed, a corkwing wrasse caught by Ewan Chambers, with flounders being the predominant species.

Harry Courtice eventually took the lead with his two flounders which proved enough to win him the trophy, with Kadie Lynham a close runner-up with her single flounder.

1st: Harry Courtice 97g, 2nd: Kadie Lynham 86g, 3rd: Ewan Chambers 79g, Heaviest flat: Kadie Lynham 86g flounder, Heaviest round: Ewan Chambers 79g corkwing wrasse, First fish: Eden Lynham, Best newcomer: Shannon Ayers
Heaviest weever: Shannon Ayers 28g, Wooden spoon: Jamie Salvador Swords Sponsors on the day: Watchouse Cafe, Kay Guppy, Richard 'Tiny' Daw, Paul Lynham and Tim Fisher

Junior matches continue throughout the year until Christmas and beginners are very welcome to come and have a go. Guests can fish matches twice with entry fees just a pound and tackle can be provided.

For more details see the website or visit the Angling Centre, West Bay. The junior section would like to extend their gratitude to the Watchouse Cafe for their support again this year. Prize winners as follows:

Shore reports: Seatown April 9th

AT Last West Bay members turned up on a pleasant evening at Seatown.

Plenty of dogfish were caught along with the first

corkwing wrasse of the year, but alas no rays yet; well done to Frances Kitchen who had the best fish of the night.

1st: Lea Windsor 5000g, 2nd: Ollie Mears 4105g, 3rd: Paul House 4090g, Heaviest fish: Frances Kitchen dogfish 1055g, Most species: Steve Fowles (3) dogfish, pout and corkwing wrasse.

West Bay & Burton March 26th

ALL but three anglers chose to fish at Burton; the three that fished West Bay took all but one of the prize pots.

1st: Ollie Mears 5445g, 2nd: PJ Wheeler 4975g, 3rd: Lea Windsor 2630g, Heaviest fish: Ollie Mears dogfish 885g, Most species: Craig Horton (4) dogfish, pout, shore and 5 beard rockling.

Andy Neal Rover March 21st

THERE was a very poor turn out by members for the latest rover match; a shame as there were a few fish about including the first plaice of the year.

Heaviest bag: Paul House 5390g, Most species (equal first): 2; Steve Fowles; dogfish and pout, 2nd: Tony Colls 1160g, 3rd: Ollie Mears 760g, Heaviest fish (above bags removed): no winner.

Lyme Regis March 12th

TEN anglers fished around the Cobb on a relatively calm evening with Simon Bowditch the only one to catch his full house of dogfish.

1st: Simon Bowditch 4710g, 2nd: Ollie Mears 1930g, 3rd: Simon Skinner 1240g, Most species: PJ Wheeler (3) Pollack, pout and 5 beard rockling, Heaviest fish: Simon Bowditch dogfish 825g.

Lyme Golf County honours

LYME Regis juniors David Lyon and Stuart Wight both recently triumphed in Dorset Junior County competitions.

Lyon won the Henderson Trophy, with the final four rounds of matchplay golf played over two days.

To reach the final David had some convincing wins and in the final played a mixture of clever and steady golf, holding his nerve around 'the Dudsbury Amen Corner' to emerge the 3 and 2 winner, a worthy champion after some brilliant golf.

Despite being knocked out in the Henderson Trophy, Wight won the Keith Durbin Salver for the lowest aggregated gross score for three rounds during the Stroke Play phase of the Henderson Competition.

His 220 strokes over three rounds was six better than his 2nd placed rival.

In the April medal Adrian Morgan certainly didn't fool around as he won Division One with a storming net 66 the best score of the day.

Simon Vincent and Ian Mudford, both carded 69 and were 2nd and 3rd on countback.

Dave Jones' net 68 won Division Two from Jon Culimore, net 69 one ahead of Rob Crabbe with 70.

The midweek stableford saw a return to the podium for Stuart Wight 38 points, with John Jones coming second with 36 points, just ahead of Matthew Watson 35 points

In the ladies Coronation Foursomes, Caroline Baker & Jane Dixon played exceptionally well to win with 38 points and go through to represent the club.

Gilly Madill & Rosie Jackman beat Cyndy Mudford & Lesley Jelleman both with 33 points on countback.

In the Australian Spoons, the worthy winners were Corinne Jones & Kathy Briggs.

Youth football Win double for Seasiders

THE Lyme Regis Under 15s completed their Dorset League Division Three season in fine style with goals from Neo Sydenham (2) and Finlay McLean in a 3-0 win over DEXTER SPORTS at the Davey Fort on Sunday.

Meanwhile, the under 12s progressed in the East Devon cup winning 6-4 in an entertaining game at SEATON TOWN.

MoM Connor Tate (3), Ben Collymore, Ethan Matthews and Brooklyn Wilkins were all amongst the goals.

The two teams are due to meet again in a league match at Seaton on Friday evening.

Rallying

Ireland and Scadding back on track

LOCAL rally duo Rex Ireland and Adrian Scadding are back and raring to go after having to retire when they lost oil pressure during the opening round of the BRDTA Rally at Wydean Forest in February.

The problem necessitated a change of engine, and caused them to miss the second round, the Malcolm Wilson Rally at Morecombe last month.

As a result the pair have some catching up to do on the leaders, having finished in the top four in the Historic Cup last season where they compete in the H2 class.

The stages include racing up Porlock Hill to wooded areas around the Burnham-on-Sea and Minehead area.

Bees news

Chances, but Recesses fail to unlock Parley

Bridport Reserves 0
Parley Sports 2
Dorset Premier League

BRIDPORT Reserves gave a good account of themselves against Parley Sports at St Mary's Field, but failed to take their opportunities in a game they could well have taken at least a point.

Manager Robin Townsend said: "I'm a little disappointed, it wasn't a true reflection of the game, but once again we failed to take our opportunities when the came.

"We were definitely the better side in the first half, and midway through Tristan Gale had a great chance to put us ahead when put through against the keeper, but he failed to hit the target.

Then in the second half we had a chance to equalise but Chris Herbst failed from the penalty spot, although to be fair their keeper made a great save."

The Bridport defence was in commanding form, and did really well to ensure Parley had no opportunities in the first half, whilst the Bees had no luck in front of goal.

Townsend's half-time talk centred simply around producing more of the same.

However, ten minutes into the second half, his charges succumbed to their Achilles heel when they conceded from a set-piece, a Sports player given a free header following a free kick.

Bridport picked up their game and went looking for an equaliser.

Penalty miss

They appeared to have been rewarded when Jack Scovell was pushed over in the box as he went to go by his marker.

But the normally reliable Herbst stepped up only to see his spot kick well saved by the visiting keeper who guessed the right way.

The Bees continued to look for that elusive equaliser but were thwarted just before the end when Parley fortuitously added a second.

A good break and cross down the right found a player unmarked at the far post. He steadied himself, but caught the ball with his shin which ballooned over keeper Jamie Fry into the net.

The Bees continue their hectic end of season programme with a visit to the Bob Lucas Stadium on tonight (Wednesday) to face WEYMOUTH RESERVES, before entertaining MERE TOWN on Saturday (3pm).

Bridport U18 3 Parley Sports 1
AFTER weeks without a game, Bridport

◆ SUPPORTING YOU BACK: John Hill and Alan Kidson (right) of Bridport & Lyme Regis Royal Air Force Association present the match ball to Bridport Football Club Manager Trevor Senior before the Bees final home game of the season at home to Gillingham Town on Easter Monday. The local group of the RAFA like to be involved locally, especially with those who have supported the association in the past, to show their appreciation.

Youth knew they had to win all their remaining games to have a chance of finishing second in the Dorset U18 League.

A home victory at their Beaminster School pitch on Sunday means that they leapfrog Parley Sports to take third place in Division One.

Despite missing suspended captain Jordan Gregory, the home team started brightly keeping Parley in their own half for much of the first 20 minutes and coming close to scoring as Sam Tabner found space between defenders.

Nevertheless it was the visiting team that took the lead when Bridport failed to clear a corner and a loose ball on the edge of the six-yard box was well taken on the turn by the Parley centre forward.

It wasn't long however before captain of the day Jonah Ayunga powered his way through the Parley defence to level the score.

Moments later a superb switch ball from Ayunga found right-back Dan Holt in space on the corner of the visitors' box.

Before the defence could react, Holt's cross found Ayunga who drove in his second.

After the break Parley tried hard to get back in the game and keeper Adam Hoskins needed to make a couple of good saves.

The hosts kept calm and Olly Woodcock regained control of midfield with the help of Josh Harvey making his debut.

The Parley goal came under increasing pressure and Bridport had several near misses including Tabner's free-kick which crashed against the crossbar.

They were finally rewarded ten minutes from time when Ayunga's cutback from the byline was calmly tucked away by Harry Craddock to seal the victory.

Bridport Manager Terry Warren said: "At no point did I doubt we would win today.

"This was a confident performance against a very physical side and it sets us up to finish the season on a high."

Bridport have two games left, home and away against Bournemouth Poppies.

Bridport players excel in development squad

FOUR Bridport youth footballers have just finished a successful season as part of the Dorset County FA Development

Centre Under 15s squad.

Dane James, Cody Bowditch, Sam Handysides and Henry Davy were all selected for the 18-man squad following successful trials in August, and attended coaching sessions at Weymouth every Wednesday under the direction of DCFA Development Centre Under 15s Head Coach Mike Thompson, also from Bridport.

During the season they played representative games against professional development squads and senior youth teams.

There were notable successes including a 2-1 win against the London based Southampton Academy at Hammer-smith, and during their end of season tour game last week against Leicester City Academy who they beat 3-1.

The players have also been equally successful playing for Mark Scadding's Bridport Youth under 15s during the season.

Mike Thompson said: "I would like to thank them and their parents for their commitment and professionalism during the season.

"It was a pleasure to have some input into their football development and to wish them well in the future."

Swimming

Swimmers make their mark at county championships

THIS year Chard & District Swimming Club had over 40 county qualifiers taking part in the Somerset County Championships being held at Millfield School over four weekends, and they made their mark with no less than 75 top eight positions and 135 personal best times achieved.

Sixteen-year-old Iain Ross achieved the club's gold speed badge by swimming 50m freestyle in under 27 seconds, whilst Jamie Porter (12) achieved the silver speed badge by swimming 50m freestyle in under 36 seconds for the first time.

Six swimmers achieved medal positions:

Tessa Down (18) 3rd 50m breaststroke, 2nd 200m breaststroke;

Henry Taswell (14) 1st 1500m freestyle, 2nd 200m butterfly, 3rd 100m freestyle, 50m butterfly and 100m backstroke;

Joss Copeman (13) 2nd 50m butterfly, 3rd 200m butterfly;

Xanthe Dyer (13) 3rd 50m and 100m breaststroke,

Esme Huntley (9) 1st 200m backstroke, 3rd 50m freestyle.

Despite more difficult qualification times for the older swimmers this year; partly due to a change in rules to age at the end of the year instead of date of competition.

For the first time qualification in all events was open to younger age group swimmers and 55 new SW regional qualifying or consideration times were achieved during the four weeks of competition by 14 swimmers.

Tessa Down and Melissa Hanson (both 18), Hope Horsfield, Lewis Pearson, Iain Ross (16), Henry Taswell, Simon Davis, Leo Kindred (14), Joss Copeman, Xanthe Dyer (13), Briana Barrand, Millie Downes, Abi Greenslade, Jimmy Brett (11).

Regional standards

This gives the club an overall total of 18 swimmers who have achieved regional standard this season, including those gaining qualification at previous events or for the short course SW regional winter championships: Hannah Pullinger (19), Joe Spurway (18), Jamie Pullinger (17) and Paul Harrison (17).

February's swimmers of the month for achieving first time ever regional qualifying or consideration times were: Abi Greenslade (11) for 100m butterfly, and shared boys Jimmy Brett (11) for 50m freestyle, Leo Kindred, for 100m breaststroke and Iain Ross for 50m freestyle, and for March: shared girls Hope Horsfield (16) for 50m freestyle, Millie Downes for 200m breaststroke, and Simon Davis (14) for 50m breaststroke.

The club are always looking for new members age 7 upwards.

INSIDE: Sea anglers kick off new season

Extra time cup glory as Ambers leave it late

Wool & Winfrith 1 Netherbury 2
NETHERBURY Football Club dug deep to produce a great team performance to win the Dorset Junior Cup for the first time in over 50 years in front of a crowd of over 250 at St Mary's Field Bridport last Thursday night.

However they left it late. It looked like Wool & Winfrith's early goal was enough to lift the trophy, but skipper Tom Franklin equalised with just three minutes of normal time remaining, before Karl Ives popped up on 99 minutes to score the winner.

The Ambers found themselves behind after only three minutes. Wool won a throw in deep in Amber territory and Michael Collins' flick on ended up with an unsighted Ryan Gay prodding the ball into his own net.

On 15 minutes Netherbury suffered another temporary setback when Richard Pincombe had to go off for lengthy treatment for a cut to his forehead. However with Pincombe restored, Netherbury began to settle down and work their way back into the match.

Ryan Gall started to feature in the game more, and it was Gall who had Netherbury's best chance of the half, but the Wool keeper saved well.

At the other end the Ambers were indebted to keeper Rob Hart, who pulled off a brilliant double save.

Netherbury had good pressure for quite long periods of the second-half and dominated the last 25 minutes with Franklin hitting the crossbar from 20 yards and Mark Cuff putting a half chance over the bar from eight yards.

Substitutions helped keep the Ambers fresh and eventually their pressure told when in the 87th minute a cross from the right found Franklin, who neatly turned his defender and toe-poked the ball underneath the keeper for the equaliser. With Wool obviously tiring, Netherbury pushed for a winner but ran out of time.

In extra time the Ambers looked the fresher side and dominated Wool for the first 15 minutes and duly got their goal.

A long ball in the box caused confusion and following a scramble, Ives kept his cool to prod the ball home for a couple of yards.

Wool improved in second period and in the dying seconds hit the crossbar from a direct free-kick, but Netherbury held on to win the Dorset Cup for the first time since 1961.

A delighted manager Andy

■ AMBER NECTAR: The players and officials of Netherbury enjoy their triumph.

Loudon said: "It's not quite sunk in yet! I'm so proud of all the players and I thought they showed so much effort and determination to keep going. It's a great achievement for our club and it means so much to me personally as I have been wanting to win this cup since

I became manager!"
He praised his entire team, but picked out Pincombe, Gay, Cuff and Gall for their efforts.
